Bradmer Foods Forms First Specialty & Organic Food Fund, Makes First Investment in Charles Chocolates

(November 1, 2007) – Bradmer Foods LLC, a specialty and organic food and beverage focused venture capital firm, is pleased to announce the formation of Bradmer Foods Fund I LLC. The fund will invest exclusively in the food industry and, more specifically, in manufacturers and retailers with $1-10+ million in revenue. “This fund allows us to make substantial investments in a number of small but growing food companies,” said Adam Borden, Bradmer Foods’ Managing Director.

Simultaneously, Bradmer Foods Fund I made its first investment in Emeryville, CA-based chocolatier, Charles Chocolates. Adam Borden has joined their Board of Directors. Charles Chocolates is a boutique specialty chocolatier started by Chuck Siegel, a 20-year chocolate industry veteran. “Partnering with Charles Chocolates builds upon our successful investment in Seattle-based Organic To Go (OTC BB: OTGO.OB), the nation’s first fast casual café chain to be certified as an organic retailer,” said Borden.
